

Transplant Creations

For treatment and transplant logics ...

By John Piper© 1997 Millennium Art

WORKSHOP INVITATION

Transplant Creations, initially established in 2000, develops, promotes and implements non-myeloablative or reduced intensity conditioning hematopoietic stem cell transplants according to a program to support improvement of clinical research and disease outcome.

We invite to participate in our Workshop organized by agreement of the organizers of the St. Gallen Breast Cancer Conference.

Time: March 15, 2007 from 15.30 to 17.00 hr

Location: Room Paris
Raddison SAS Hotel
St. Jakob Strasse 55
9000 St. Gallen
Switzerland
Annex the conference center

Transplantation for Breast Cancer, Past, Present and Future Directions

Topics Discussed During the Workshop

- Transplants for breast cancer in the past century
- Transplant Creations project
- High-dose autologous and non-myeloablative allogeneic transplants for advanced breast cancer, a pilot study
- Non-myeloablative allogeneic cell transplants, briefly reviewed
- Optimization of disease outcome
- Questions and answers

Speakers: Angelo M. Carella, MD, PhD, Ospedale San Martino, Genoa, Italy
Marlies E.H.M. Van Hoef, MD, PhD, MBA, Transplant Creations, Amsterdam, Netherlands

Transplant Creations * P.O. Box 51342 * 1007 EH Amsterdam * Netherlands
P: 0031-20-675 2887 * F: 0031-20-675 8950 * info@transplantcreations.com